NANJANGUD MUNICIPAL COUNCIL.

Dated 27th February 1917.

The following draft bye-laws are framed by the Nanjangud Municipal Council under Sections 46 and 48 of the Municipal Regulation of 1906 and are published for the information of the public.

Any resident within the area of the Nanjangud Municipality, who has any objection or suggestion with respect to the draft bye-laws should communicate to the Vice-President, Nanjangud Municipality within one month from the date of this notification.

President, Municipal Council.

Bye-laws re : the vacant building sites :—

(1) It shall be competent for the President or Vice-President to declare that any vacant land within the Municipal limits is fit for use as a building site and to call upon the owner or if the owner cannot be ascertained or found, the person in possession, of the site or when any doubt or uncertainty exists as to the ownership or possession, by persons interested in such site, to erect and complete a building upon it within a period fixed by the President or Vice-President not exceeding six months, provided, however, that in cases in which the President or Vice-President may deem fit and proper, they may issue a notice as aforesaid requiring the site to be enclosed and conserved within a period of three months or such further period as may be allowed by the President or Vice-President.

Procedure after default.

(2) When the notice issued under Sub-section (1) of Section 91 A of the Municipal Regulation requiring the erection of a building, is not complied with, or when the notice under Sub-section (1) of Section 91 A requiring the site to be enclosed and conserved is not complied with, it shall be competent to the President or Vice-President, after the expiry of the period of time fixed in the notice to enter upon and take possession of the site free from all encumbrances created by the owner or any person claiming through him and to dispose of the same for building purposes either by public auction or otherwise. The owner or any
